Greek solar charging photovoltaic energy storage cabinet

Overview

Should Greece invest in energy storage facilities?

Currently there is a growing interest for investments in storage facilities in Greece. Licensed projects mostly consist of Li-ion battery energy storage systems (BESS), either stand-alone or integrated in PVs, as well as PHS facilities .

How long should energy storage be in a Greek power system?

Considering the energy arbitrage and flexibility needs of the Greek power system, a mix of short (~2 MWh/MW) and longer (>6 MWh/MW) duration storages has been identified as optimal. In the short run, storage is primarily needed for balancing services and to a smaller degree for limited energy arbitrage.

How will Greece's energy savings scheme work?

The scheme will be backed with funding from Greece's Recovery and Resilience Facility. A guide to the programme is available on the Ministry's website. According to the government's estimates, beneficiaries of the scheme will lower their electricity bills by up to EUR 3,000 per year.

How much money does a solar energy programme cost?

With a budget of EUR 200 million (USD 217.5m), the programme will enable households and farmers to install up to 10.8 kW of PV capacity and 10.8 kWh of battery storage, Energy Minister Kostas Skrekas announced.

How many storage plants are there in Greece?

Currently there are four (4) storage plants operating in Greece, two open-loop pumped-hydro storage (PHS) stations in the mainland (700 MW in total) and two small hybrid RES-storage stations in non-interconnected islands (just 3 MW).

Is electricity storage a prerequisite for decarbonization of the power sector?

Even though electricity storage is recognized as a prerequisite for the decarbonization of the power sector, the development of storage facilities is still facing legal/regulatory barriers and investment feasibility concerns.
