Hungary 48v energy storage lithium battery

Overview

Will Hungary's new battery energy storage system help Green the grid?

The new facility supports a growing push to green Hungary's power grid. Hungary has just switched on its largest battery energy storage system (BESS) to date, stepping up its role in Central Europe's growing grid-scale energy transition.

How much does Hungarian government spend on energy storage projects?

The Hungarian government has allocated HUF 62 billion (EUR 158 million) for energy storage projects with an overall 440 MW in operating power. Hungarian authorities launched the tender for grid-scale batteries on January 15 and received offers until February 5. The winning bidders were selected a few days ago.

Which companies make lithium-ion batteries in Hungary?

Today, Samsung SDI and SKI Innovation operate several giant factories in Hungary, whose total production will potentially grow to 47.3 GWh by 2025 and up to 87.3 GWh by 2030. GS Yuasa also produces automotive lithium-ion starter batteries, while Inzi Control also manufactures battery modules.

Is Hungary stocking up on battery backup?

Hungary isn't alone in stocking up on battery backup as it charts its green energy path. In neighbouring Bulgaria, a massive 124 MW/496 MWh battery energy storage system went live in Lovech earlier this year.

Who manufactures Car batteries in Hungary?

GS Yuasa also produces automotive lithium-ion starter batteries, while Inzi Control also manufactures battery modules. Many of the significant suppliers of the battery industry in Hungary are located directly near the main car manufacturing plants.

What is the Hungarian battery value chain strategy?

Based on the situation analysis presented above, the vision of the Strategy, which takes the form of a long-term concept, is to support the establishment of a Hungarian battery value chain based on high value-added services and production in Hungary, as well as a joint value creation by international and national operators.
