What is advanced compressed air energy storage?

Activate your Online Access Now The Advanced Compressed Air Energy Storage is being proposed as part of the Quinte Energy Storage Centre near the Lennox Generating Station west of the city. The project promises to store 500 megawatts of electricity for use during peak demand.

How does a new energy storage system work?

The project promises to store 500 megawatts of electricity for use during peak demand. Put simply, the system uses off-peak electricity to run a high-pressure compressor to create compressed air, which is then pumped into an underground, water-filled storage tank.

Should Kingston's Public Utility be involved?

The project is being characterized as a regional asset with economic benefits for all of eastern Ontario and David Fell, the president and chief executive officer of Utilities Kingston, said it was a project that Kingston's public utility should be involved in.

What is Quinte energy storage centre (qesc)?

We are proud to be a partner on the proposed Quinte Energy Storage Centre (QESC), that would contribute 500 MW of capacity and eight hours of storage for continuous discharge into the provincial grid.
